Other Requirements:

1. Write and enclose with this application an essay about your musical goals, experiences or why you study music. Also address what you expect to gain with private music study or an instrument upgrade.
2. Teacher Recommendation

Reminder to Applicant/Music Teacher: These scholarships are considered need-sensitive, meaning that students with apparent need are preferred over those without noted need. Please address any known financial need (student qualifies for reduced lunch, single parent family, multiple siblings, etc.) in either the applicant's essay or the letter of recommendation from the music teacher. A new audition policy is in place for students who receive RMF need-sensitive funds for private music study. Details sent with scholarship letter. Completed application, essay and teacher recommendation should be sent to the address at the top of the application. Please contact Keri Shultz, President, at (610) 376-3395 with questions.

Applications are accepted throughout the year for Private Music Study & Instrument Upgrade scholarships. RMF's Scholarship Committee reviews applications at its quarterly meetings (February, May, July and October). Upcoming review dates are February 24, 2017 and May 12, 2017. July and October dates to be scheduled later in 2017.
